SUMMARY

This beautiful property is located in Lagunas, a mountain community with excellent roads and water. The Lagunas water system is an ASADA which means that it is legally registered and building permits can be acquired. This is getting harder and harder to find these days. The property sits at 800 ft elevation and it is 15 min from the town of Dominical and the beach. The way the lot is positioned on the ridge it has mountain views in every direction and constant mountain breezes. The building site faces west and has amazing sunsets over the jungle. The property is surrounded by the jungle and is frequently visited by many birds and animals. You will see monkeys, toucans, sloths, and parrots. There are also several mature fruit trees included water apples and mangos. The property also has access to a creek and waterfall with a swimming hole at the bottom of the waterfall. This lot has power and water and is ready for construction. There are 2 neighboring properties also for sale. Please inquire for a package...
