SUMMARY

The farm, about 30 hectares in Sabina region north of Rome, is located in a geographical location that is particularly interesting in terms of both landscape and art history. The proximity to some sites of historical interest and the ability to reach Rome with ease, making it an ideal place for both Roman client for foreign customer who prefers a place of residence in nature and in complete relaxation, while near Rome. The farm looks at an average altitude of about 180 m above sea level and has a hilly-type arrangement. From an agricultural point of view we have: about 1.5 ha with olive trees (296 olive trees between Leccino, Frantoio and Pendolino); tree plant mixed Orchard of about 3.5 ha (pears, apples, cherries, peaches, figs, walnuts, mulberry trees, Arbutus. etc.): tree plant from wood with fine hardwood lumber (Italian and...
